6 Signs You're Doing Great!

This graphic shows a few of the blessings we enjoy in our country. Most people we broadcast to in third-world countries do not have these blessings as part of their daily life. While they may not be doing “great” materially - when they hear, obey and share the good news of the gospel, they receive the same spiritual blessing every Christian enjoys. When you support the GBM-TCH, ministry you help share the gospel world-wide with all its blessings!

This cartoon points out a problem with all computers - they grow old. A magazine reported using a “7-year-old computer is like driving a ‘66 Chevy on the Interstate.” Our studio team in Thailand uses a 10-year-old computer that needs replacing. Your gift of $3,000 will purchase an up-to-date studio computer for daily production of Lisu, Ngochang and Wa Christian radio programs. Will you help with this project?

Report from Burma

by David Brackemyre

Dave and Bill on the Thai-Burma border

It was my privilege early this year to travel to Tachileik, Myanmar (Burma) and teach along with GBM Director, Bill McClure and others, in the 17th Annual Golden Triangle Seminar. The invitation came through those who organize and direct the seminar each year, Tasanee and Mark Siriphong.

Attending were church leaders from Myanmar and several SE Asian countries and students at Tachileik Bible Institute. While we were there, Bill also interviewed several people who prepare GBM-sponsored radio broadcasts in a variety of languages. It has always been a blessing to relate to brothers and sisters who are faithful in disadvantaged countries (my wife and I have been associated with The Voice of the Martyrs for 20+ years in various capacities. I also traveled with LaVerne Morse to Cambodia to teach on three occasions). Their spirit, shown in worship, study, and dedication to spreading the Gospel, is a positive example for all of us. My assigned topic was the return of Christ, and I taught from my book, just released, “Maranatha! The Lord is Coming.”

The story of one attendee well represented their spirit and dedication. Cha She Bo is a Lahu evangelist in Myanmar. He heard that there was a Lahu population in Laos and so he traveled to Laos on two occasions with the Gospel. On both trips, he was detained by the Communist government, kept in confinement and was beaten and robbed. Yet, his efforts won converts to true faith in Christ. He has planted churches and trained disciples. After one of the sessions, my translator Simon Thaung brought Cha She Bo to me. He grabbed my hand firmly, and through Simon told me his story.

When people like you and me go to those who have suffered, we want to give them aid, and that is good. But, when they find someone who understands and is supportive, they first want to tell their story. It was an emotional and meaningful moment. I believe the work of GBM in third world situations, which can include persecution, is very meaningful and important. Anyone supporting this ministry is contributing to efforts that clearly have eternity in mind. Dave Brackemyre (More about Dave's book on next page)

Are all the bases covered???

At some point in every baseball season this question is asked by coaches of their players. "Are all the bases covered?" It's the same question churches and Christians should ask themselves about their use of missionary dollars in obeying the great commission Jesus gave to "Go and make disciples of all the nations."

Are you covering all the bases? Are you doing all you can to share Jesus with as many people as possible? Have you considered using and or supporting one of the most cost-effective methods available to reach people young and older - are you supporting the use of RADIO?

Obviously, you cannot support every request received. However, by the use of radio you will be able to cover many more bases and reach many more people - and our radio ministry needs your support. This includes both prayer and financial support. Tozer said, "As base a thing as money often is ... it can be transmuted into everlasting treasure. It can be converted into food for the hungry and clothing for the poor. It can keep a missionary actively winning lost men to the light of the gospel and thus transmute itself into heavenly values."

We want to invite you to support this mission. Since 1943, we have been on radio sharing God's Word at home and around the world. We really need your partnership and financial support. If you have ever thought about it - NOW is the time to give. What Yogi Berra said is true: "It's getting late early." Bill McClure
